On Monday evening the academic team took part in the first of five conference meets for the 2019/2020 season and brought home the banner by outpacing second place Greensburg by 11 points and third place Batesville by 12.5 points. The Math and Social Studies teams both placed first, while the English, Interdisciplinary and Science teams placed second. Great Job Teams!!

The next conference meet will be at Lawrenceburg on Monday, September 25th starting at 6:00.
