Wednesday, December 9

Until Christmas break, the AOK Club will be hosting our annual Hat and Scarf drive for the Homeless! Donations do not have to be limited to hats and scarves, however; coats, gloves, blankets, and any other winter apparel are greatly appreciated. Donations can be used and will be sanitized before taken to a shelter. All donations should be brought to Mrs. Donohue's room. After donating, your name and fourth period will be put on a piece of paper and placed into a raffle. At the end of the drive, one winner will be chosen out of both group A and group B and they will receive a basket of fun Christmas goodies!
